Cyclist Hit By Auto Is Injured

A young Broadmoor bicyclist suffered a severe head cut, concussion and a possible fractured skull Tuesday afternoon when he was hit by a car and thrown 18 feet through the air.

Gregory MacCarthy, 6, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert J. MacCarthy, 1827 Sweetwood drive, was riding his bike east on Sweetwood when he apparently lost control, ramming into the side of a car coming south on Washington. Impact of the collision threw the child an estimated 18 feet, according to Broadmoor officers.

Driver of the auto, Lawrence Vannucci, 64, of 607 MacArthur drive, was not held to blame for the accident, police said.

Later transferred to St. Luke's hospital in San Francisco, the child was said to be resting well although he has a possible skull fracture and slight concussion.

Tuesday's accident marked the third one on Washington street in a period of two weeks.

Local high school officials are saying they doubt if it really was a Jeff student who recently attempted the leap off the Golden Gate because of an unrequited love.

Such things have a way of coming to light when you've got 1400 kids around, and so far none of the youngsters have the slightest idea who the would-be jumper was.

At the throttle last week when a Belmont nurse was snatched from instant death after her car was stalled in the train tracks at San Carlos was Engineer CHARLES OSTER, 121 Irvington.

Leaving the warmth of home last frigid Wednesday night to turn on the lights at Firehouse No. 2 so judges could peruse the Christmas display better was Fireman HANK WEISNER.

The blurb was from the U. S. Postmaster's office, which goes to show even the boss doesn't get preferential treatment on his mail.

A patron left an overcoat there, called Frank a few days later to ask if he'd spotted the coat. Frank checked and replied that the garment wasn't at his place.

Later this week he discovered an overcoat he thought was his own, actually was the missing one belonging to the customer.

Owner of the brown gabardine coat may retrieve it from Frank. "I hope he won't think I was trying to get myself a new coat," Frank says.

Life Prison Terms For Dope Pushers Sought By Jury

Mandatory life prison terms without benefit of parole was recommended for persons convicted of trafficking in the juvenile narcotics racket by the county grand jury last week.

Recent alleged narcotics activity at the Hilltop Lodge in Daly City was an important factor in the jury's deliberations on juvenile dope traffic, according to Foreman Norman Corlett.

"The jury's resolution was not prompted entirely by the Hilltop problem," Corlett said. "District attorney Keith Sorenson reported to the jury that narcotics is not becoming any less of a problem in San Mateo county."

Recent probe of the Hilltop Lodge by Sorenson and local police resulted in several arrests and convictions on possession and sale of narcotics. The Lodge is currently facing possible loss of liquor license because of the purported dope activity.

In other action last week, the grand jury heard a report from County Supervisor Thomas J. Callan Sr. of Colma, who said that major grand jury recommendations for changes in bookkeeping procedures in the North San Mateo County Sanitation district have been put into practice. Callan is one of three directors of the district, which serves this area.

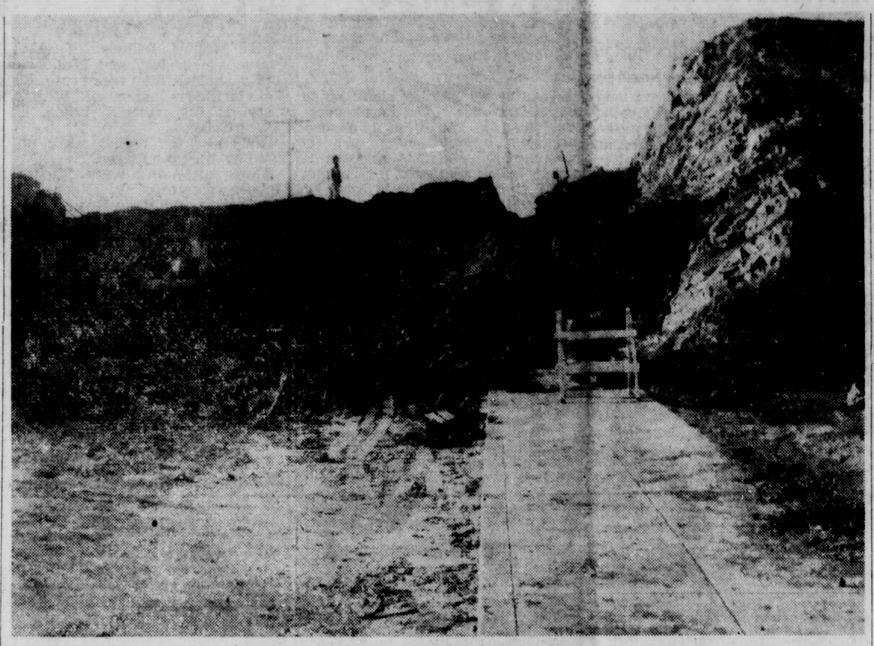
Governor Knight Lauds Daly City S-D Day Record

Governor Goodwin J. Knight this week lauded the citizens of Daly City for their part in the recent Safe-Driving day campaign.

In a letter to Henry Sundermann, director of S-D day here, Knight said, "I am so impressed by the public enthusiasm which was generated for S-D day that I am hopeful we can preserve the fine organization of local S-D day directors and utilize it as a force to assist in making California a safe place in which to live, work and play."

The Governor said with this thought in mind, he had requested his traffic safety committee to explore the possibilities of a master traffic safety plan for California, with S-D day directors being instrumental in such a group.

Daly City finished the 24-hour S-D day period December 15 without a single accident.



ANNIVERSARY — Contractor Oscar C. Holmes last week began big earth moving job to complete extension of Brunswick street through to Hillside boulevard. Coincidentally, it was just two years ago this week that the Brunswick retaining wall, erected by Bragato Paving Co., caved in, carrying down with it a house and resulting in numerous legal entanglements. The Brunswick Job, most controversial and delayed in the city's history, is being completed now by the Holmes company at a price of $17,777. More than $100,000 is already tied up in the project.

CITY TAXPAYERS IN GOOD HUMOR; PAY TWO-THIRDS

Daly City's taxpayers are on their "good behavior" this year, according to figures received from the office of City Clerk B. C. Ross.

On December 10, date on which first installment of city taxes became delinquent, Ross reported that $210,229.88 of the $321,497.32 in overall city taxes collectable had been paid.

This left $111,267.44, or only slightly more than one-third, to be collected, Ross said.

In previous years, according to the city clerk, usually only about one half of the revenue is forwarded to the city by the December 10 date.

Ross indicated it was the first time in memory that nearly two-thirds of the city taxes had been

Fourth Pick-Up On Drunk Count Leads To Bastile

Sixty-year-old Dean Francis O'Connor, 226 Evergreen, is cooling his heels in the county jail today after racking up his fourth straight offense for being drunk in a public place.

O'Connor was picked up by Daly City police on Christmas afternoon at a Mission street tavern—the same place where he had been arrested on three prior occasions within a period of one week.

Last week, as a result of two prior incidents, O'Connor appeared before Municipal Judge Thomas L. Bocci and was fined $25. He was given a five day stay of execution to pay the fine.

O'Connor appeared in court again this Tuesday, but not to pay the fine. This time the judge deemed a 10-day stay was in order

YULE VANDALS SMASH THREE WINDSHIELDS

Rocks and a vodka bottle were the weapons used to smash three car windshields, doing an estimated $175 damage, on Christmas eve and morning.

The marauders struck first at 93 Vendome on Friday, Dr. Ivan Budaeff, 2 Mission Circle, and Robert Drude, 110 Sagamore, San Francisco, said they were visiting friends on Vendome when they heard a loud crash outside about 11:15 p.m. Investigating, they found windshields on both their autos had been shattered. Budaeff estimated damage to his auto at $75, while Drude said extent of damage to his windshield was $50. A vodka bottle found near the scene was believed to be the instrument used.

Trailer Court Is Again Hot Topic

Tony Ricci, Daly City police commissioner, gave the Smith trailer court proposal its severest tongue lashing at Monday night's council meeting, with the Smiths' attorney, Richard Lyons, primary object of the attack.

Lyons appeared at the meeting with Hugh H. Smith Sr. and Jr., along with an official court reporter, Robert Cool, retained by the Smiths to transcribe verbatim all proceedings of the meeting.

Lyons asked the council if he could brief them on Smith's plan to construct a 76-unit trailer court off Mission street on Brunswick. The planning commission rejected the Smith application last week.

Gets A "Kick"

As Lyons completed his arguments for the trailer court, Ricci jumped up and said loudly, "I get a kick out of this. The Smiths hire a brilliant young lawyer to come up here and tell us they're going to run a place without any children. Why it's the phoniest thing I've ever heard.

"What are we running here?" he demanded loudly.

Lyons attempted to answer Ricci but the commissioner yelled, "Sit down, wait a second. I've got the floor."

Ricci continued, "What does he think we are, farmers? We know the objections to a trailer court. You're a 'Roman,' Mr. Smith," he shouted. "You know you're talking to the wrong people when you give us this stuff about not allowing children."

When Lyons finally took the floor, he explained that, "Mr. Smith is not against children. Many people have voiced objections to a trailer court with a lot of children so he said he would go along with allowing only grown-ups at the court."

Hugh Smith Sr. arose and said, "The state has laws about the number of persons who can live safely in a certain amount of feet of air space. We feel we shouldn't put children in a small two-room trailer."

Other Correspondence?

Smith then asked if the petition containing 441 protestants to the trailer court was the only correspondence submitted to the council on the matter.

City Administrator Dan Andersen said he remember another letter on the trailer court. He got the correspondence and read it before the 35 persons assembled in the council chambers. The letter, from the Stoneson Development Co., told of the Smiths' efforts to eliminate the quarry eyesore and

NAME HEALY TO ASSISTANT INSPECTOR JOB

City council Monday night appointed Patrick James Healy, 30, to the position of assistant building inspector at a starting salary of $358 and ranging to a high of $415.

Establishment of the assistant job was brought about to aid Building Inspector George Hopman in inspection of electrical and plumbing installations.

According to City Administrator Dan Andersen, the city has been losing considerable money in inspection fees because the job is too vast for Hopman to handle alone.

Healy's appointment to the civil service post was made effective January 1. He will serve a one-year probationary period.

The new assistant has worked as an engineering aid for the U. S. bureau of reclamation and more recently as a general contractor with his father.

Willits Resident Is Charged With Profanity

George Emett Meyers, 50, of 46 Willits street, is scheduled to appear in municipal court Tuesday morning on a charge of using profanity in front of his wife and 16-year-old daughter.

Police said they were summoned to Willits home by neighbors Friday night, who reported a family dispute was in progress.

Police officers said they attempted to talk to Meyers but that he was very uncooperative, swearing at them and his family.

He was booked on the charge and later released on $25 bail.

RESIDENTS COMPLAIN OF BIG STINK HERE

Tuesday and Wednesday of this week many Daly City residents reported a decided "stench" wafting into the city.

According to city sources, the foul odor came from a chemical plant on Bayshore highway.

Pioneer Daly City Business Woman Dies After Illness

Funeral services for Mrs. Johannah Warshawski, 59, proprietor of one of Daly City's pioneer business establishments, will be held today (Friday) at 10 a.m. at the Sinai Memorial Chapel in San Francisco.

She passed away Wednesday following a long illness.

Owner of Warshawski's Dry Goods Store, 6340 Mission street, she had been in business at the same location for over 32 years.

She had lived at 430 Wessex Way in Belmont, Calif.

The wife of the late Henry Warshawski, she is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Jane Crahenbuhl and Mrs. Maxine Pettingell of Belmont; four grandchildren: Sandra Crahenbuhl, and Ralph, Hillary, and Radine Pettingell; and a brother, Moritz Jacoby.

Services will be conducted from the Sinai Memorial Chapel, 1501 Divisidero street, with the Rabbi Morris Goldstein officiating.

CHANGE MINUTES TO SHOW VICKERS WAS NOT "ABSENT"

A technicality in the minutes of December 20 council meeting was ordered changed by Mayor Joseph Verducci Monday night.

The minutes showed Councilman Sanford Vickers "absent."

According to Vickers, he contacted the mayor before the December 20 meeting and explained to him that he had to work that night.

No mention of this was made during the meeting and Vickers was listed as absent.

In the correction ordered Monday night by Verducci, the minutes were changed to read that Vickers was "unable to attend because of a business engagement."

Local Attorney Is Named To Santa Cruz County Post

Appointment of Melvin R. Dykman, 32-year-old local attorney and well-known Daly City resident, as assistant to Santa Cruz county district attorney Charles Moore was announced this week.

The four-year appointment is effective next Monday.

Dykman, who passed the state bar examination in 1953, has been associated with the legal firm of Blum & Gallen at 6836 Mission street.

The young attorney attended Daly City elementary schools and was graduated from Jefferson High school, University of California Class of '50 and Hastings College of Law, Class of '53.

He has made his residence here at 196 Wellington.

From 1942 to 1945 Dykman saw combat in China with the Army Air Force. He was at one time employed with THE RECORD as circulation manager.

Dykman, his wife and son will make their home in Santa Cruz when he takes over the assistant district attorney post.

He said he will maintain his association with the Blum & Gallen firm.

how their efforts had helped to improve value of adjacent property. It urged approval of the trailer court.

"The 441 homeowners protesting the trailer court seem enough to refute the Stoneson letter," said a member of the audience. William Cheatham, 61 Muirwood drive, whose wife, Helen, is chairman of the Jefefrson Elementary School district board of trustees.

Cheatham also inquired of the council if the entire transcript of the planning commission's public hearing on the trailer court was in the hands of the council.

"I believe the council should withhold action on this matter until an accurate transcript of the planning commission meeting is forwarded to the council.

Misunderstanding

"I think there's been some misunderstanding here tonight," he continued. "We didn't know the case was going to be re-heard tonight."

Cheatham argued that Smith had volunteered to have his court reporter forward a complete transcript of the planners meeting to the council.

Lyons answered that, "We haven't ordered a transcript made yet and we may not."

Cheatham countered that Smith had promised to submit the transcript.

Mrs. Carl Berg, 185 Hillside boulevard, entered the debate, telling the council that many citizens declined to voice their objections to the trailer court at the planning commission meet because Smith's court reporter was taking it all down.

"I think, however, it would be interesting for you to hear what some of the citizens and commissioners had to say about the trailer court at the hearing last week," she said.

Cheatham suggested that in the future the city retain their own court reporter to take down all statements. "I think such a record would show that Smith agreed to submit a transcript of the meeting."

Mayor Joseph Verducci acclaimed Cheatham's suggestion and said they would investigate it.

The council withheld any further action on the trailer court proposal, slating next Monday night to reach their decision.

Path On S. Mayfair For School Kids Asked By Attorney

A pathway over the Ocean Shore railway property on South Mayfair was urged at Monday night's council meeting by City Attorney Frank Blum.

The attorney said that unless some sort of path is built across the undeveloped elevation of land, young children going to Olympia school will have to walk on the shoulder of Alemany boulevard, a heavily travelled thoroughfare.

The railway easement crosses South Mayfair two blocks west of the shopping center, forming a dead-end, and is virtually impassable for smaller children, Blum said.

Since Olympia school, located on Northgate near Eastgate north of Alemany, is expected to be opened with the commencement of the winter term January 3, children living in the Westlake development, south of Alemany will have to travel up South Mayfair and cross over at Dorchester to get to school.

Unless some sort of path is developed at the South Mayfair dead-end, the youngsters will have to walk right on the busy highway, Blum explained.

Councilmen concurred with Blum's suggestion and City Administrator Dan Andersen was instructed to contact the Henry Doelger firm to determine if they can aid the project in any way.

Asked if the Ocean Shore would attempt to stop the city from constructing a path over the railway right of way, Blum said, "I'd just as soon battle them in court now." He maintained that the city is entitled to use the property as long as they leave the grade intact.

Three Juvenile Car Thieves Arrested Here

Three juveniles were picked up by Daly City police early yesterday (Thursday) morning in possession of a stolen car.

Officer Philip La Bruzzo pulled the youth's car over after they had run a stop light at Mission and Crocker streets at 1:40 a.m.

The policeman recognized the car as one stolen earlier in South San Francisco and turned the youths, aged 14, 14 and 15, over to authorities in that city.

BRANDISHES GUN AFTER ARGUMENT, LOCAL POLICE SAY

Police Wednesday night confiscated a .22 rifle from Jean Kinkade, 133 Westlake avenue, after she allegedly threatened her husband, Ed, with the weapon.

According to officers, Mrs. Kinkade brandished the .22 at her spouse shortly before midnight after a domestic argument. The gun belonged to the couple's son.

Police said the couple are in the process of obtaining a divorce.

B OF A OFFICIALS OPTIMISTIC FOR '55

S. Clark Beise, president of the Bank of America stated today: "A statewide survey just completed in over 300 California communities by the bank's branch managers who interviewed businessmen, industrialists and farmers, indicates an almost unanimous belief that the economic level of 1955 will exceed that of 1954 in California. In general it is thought that the construction outlook is bright, particularly for the residential sector which makes up such a large part of the total construction outlays in California."

Beise also stated that farm income is expected to continue approximately at the same level as 1954. A slight decrease in cash income from crops may be offset by an increase in returns from livestock operations.

While some businessmen have expressed reservations regarding the last two quarters of the coming year, overall the survey reflects the confidence and optimism of California businessmen.

I wish to thank the Daly City Police Dept. and the Fire Dept. for their kindness in making my Christmas a happy one. I wish each and everyone a Happy and Prosperous New Year.

MUNICIPAL RESOLUTION

Like individuals, a city can also make a few resolutions as the New Year 1955 approaches.

We can think of a myriad of things to resolve for Daly City, but of paramount importance at present are three projects.

Of first priority, we believe, is final and absolute completion of the Daly City War Memorial community center.

We feel the 10-acre Westlake park should rank second on the agenda. The city has nearly $50,000 tied up in this enterprise, which is virtually useless to citizens now. Let's finish it up and realize some good from the capital investment.

Of next importance, we maintain, is a public works program to re-pave Daly City's chewed up streets, yank out antiquated storm drains and install a network of drainage systems.

We could go on indefinitely but realize that only by grappling with a few problems at a time will the city be able to see the culmination of any projects.

Daly City is going places in 1955. But let's see to it that we know where we're going and how we're going to get there.

Letters To The Editor

Seventh Infantry Thanks Local Residents For Generous Aid In "Toys For Tots" Drive

My dear Sir:

Everyone of us in the 7th Infantry Battalion and 1st Tank Company, United States Marine Corps Reserve would like to extend our thanks to the generous residents of the San Mateo, Burlingame, Millbrae, San Bruno, South San Francisco, Daly City and Brisbane areas, who contributed Christmas gifts for less fortunate children through "Toys for Tots."

We would like to assure them, through THE RECORD, that we appreciate their help and to report that the children involved had a most happy holiday because of their gifts.

We collected approximately 15,000 new or useable toys from the respective elementary schools which were turned over to the Christmas Bureau of the San Mateo County Welfare Agency for further distribution to the families in need of help. We consider this year's campaign a tremendous success.

We would also like to thank the superintendents, principals, teachers and students of the elementary schools which contributed so generously to the drive. Additionally we would like to thank the respective Mayors of the Peninsula communities for their help, and the San Mateo County Welfare Agency and Volunteer Bureau which manned the Christmas Bureau for making it such a success. Our thanks to the various newspapers and radio stations which gave us such loyal support. The help of these public-spirited community organizations is most appreciated.

The experience, for us, was most satisfying, and we look forward to working with our friends and neighbors in other projects for the good of Peninsula communities.

Through this paper, we wish to express our appreciation and thanks to all the kind people who donated toys which enabled us to make it a Merry Christmas for hundreds of children.

Safety News

"Our state may not officially sanction blind drivers, but during the winter we have plenty of 'Blind-Billies' behind the wheels of cars" Chief R. A. Petrocchi said today.

Commenting on the holiday hazards program now being conducted by Daly City and the National Safety Council, Petrocchi said, "Winter driving is tough enough when visibility is good. When you can't see where you're driving, your chances of arriving safely are almost zero.

Petrocchi defined Blind-Billies as drivers who might as well be blind for all they can see out of their windows. They're much too busy to take out a few minutes to clear the dirt and fog off their windshield, he said. Instead, they drive down our holiday crowded streets, peering intently through small peepholes in their windshields, endangering everyone's lives—including their own.

National Safety Council figures show that in one out of ten fatal traffic accidents last year, the driver's vision was obscured in one way or another, and half of the obstructions were on the vehicle itself. Chief Petrocchi warned motorists to check the following points:

1. Heater should be maintained in good condition to insure a steady flow of warm air. Warm air deters the formation of steam on the windows of the car.

2. Windows should be kept free of outside accumulations of fog and dirt. Clear windows before starting to drive.

3. Headlights and taillights must be in perfect working condition.

4. Fog lights are recommended for maximum vision. They should be mounted as low as possible on the front of the car, and should have clear lenses.

Weekend Drivers Safe, Sane, Sober

While other Bay Area communities were locking up a record total of drunk drivers and counting the toll of dead and injured from vehicle mishaps, Daly City wound up the festive three days with only one injury from an auto accident.

Marie Bassett, 73, of 113 West Avalon drive, Pacific Manor, suffered a broken collarbone Sunday night when the car in which she was riding collided with a vehicle at the Junipero Serra boulevard-School street intersection.

Police said Richard W. Bassett, 50, of the San Francisco Trailer Court, was travelling east on School street when his auto was struck by one driven by John F. Warren, 21, 419 Randolph, San Francisco, who was travelling north on Junipero Serra.

Mrs. Bassett, riding with her son, Richard, was treated at Junipero Serra hospital.

Saturday afternoon the Alemany boulevard-Sheffield drive intersection was site of a two-car smashup.

Police said Gervais V. Hillis, 17, of 22 Fairlawn, proceeded south on Sheffield and was hit broadside by Harry Goldman, 65, of 354 Divisidero, San Francisco, who was going east on Alemany.

Neither driver was injured. Police cited Miss Hillis for failure to yield the right of way.

No arrests for drunken driving or for being drunk in or about an auto were made in Daly City over the holdiay weekend.

Daly City Firehouse No. 5 in Westlake gained further acclaim this week when the Christmas dispaly there was awarded first place among peninsula firehouses in a metropolitan newspaper competition.

With the honor goes a $100 cash prize and a permanent trophy.

The local firehouse was also adjudged first in the competition held by Henry Doelger and the Westlake Improvement association.

THE CRAFT CORNER

By Ann Sullivan

With Christmas toys, games, and decorations flooding the house—how superfluous to think of "what to do now!" That is exactly how we felt about it when the thought of this week's column began to approach the deadline.

Then, as always, the children gave us the lead we needed. The teenies played—and we do mean played—with the gift wrappings; the bit-olders were busy putting together (fitting and re-fitting) the box lids and bottoms; the older ones built exciting appendages to their trains and games; and we elders had more fun showing tricks to be done with paper folding and cutting.

Nothing But Chaos

Just where does all this lead? At first you will doubtless see in your mind's eye, nothing but chaos—literally and figuratively. Then, you will probably agree that in this (as in one of the FEW accepted definitions of Art) the rule of — orderly arrangement — will bring the situation to acceptable terms and to educational activity. No, we are not using the terms "acceptable" and "educational" in any stoic manner—our house is LIVED in and the education is for both adult and child.

In other words, the various rooms: garage, patio, kitchen, all are "bests" for some activity. Certain commodities: paper bags, buckets, rags, can be put to good-housekeeping uses as wastebaskets, washtubs, towels; and habits of orderliness and thoughtfulness can be established.

Then, too, by watching the youngsters learn, we not only gain insight into the way they are developing, but we gain respect for the material they are using. Have you ever watched a teeny one stretch a rubber band? The hardest thing in the world is to stay away and allow him to get to "know" its characteristics—whang—and then to say with a few well-timed claps and smiles, "good, good!"

Think Back

Think back a bit—if your past was "normal" you were cautioned to "Don't" on many things—from paper tearing to "staying away from the water until you learn to swim." Certainly, you will be protective and see that no dangerous situations arise—but try getting in their and experiencing some "acquaintance fun" with your youngster—you'll love it.

The moral of this story may be resolved in two statements:

1. If we have helped you to become curious and inventive—to window shop with a "crafty" eye, to find fun in creativity—then all is well.

2. May your Christmas have been a most happy time—and your New Year filled with the greatest of joys—living!

DOLWIG TO BEGIN FIFTH TERM IN ASSEMBLY MONDAY

San Mateo county's representative in the state legislature, Assemblyman Richard J. Dolwig, is preparing to leave this weekend for Sacramento and the opening of the 1955 legislative session next Monday.

Assemblyman Dolwig will begin his fifth term in the lower house and has been a member of five standing and interim committees.

The legislator faces what Capitol observers say will be one of the most controversial sessions in many years. The question of cutting costs of state government or adding new taxes will be before the legislature this session. One faction claims the large state deficit may be met by cutting the proposed billion dollar budget to meet the income, while another faction prescribes a new tax on cigarettes, liquor and horse-race betting.

Unemployment insurance, labor legislation, highway construction, additional hospital and prison facilities, and other vital subjects point to the introduction of a record number of bills in the opening days of the session. Nearly 6,000 measures were introduced at the regular session two years ago.

Davis failed to appear on the charge.

DALY CITY EAGLES TOPPLE APPLE TREE TO WIN KEG LEAGUE

Paced by anchor man Dell Fehl's 548 series, Daly City Eagles broke the Daly City-Colma Bowling league first half deadlock at Brentwood Tuesday night, taking two out of three games from Apple Tree Restaurant.

At the close of the league's first half Eagles and Apple Tree were tied with 31-14 marks and Tuesday night's sudden death play determined the championship.

The Eagles started the playoffs on a sour note, dropping a game to Apple Tree, 850-778.

The Daly City team came back strong in the next two sessions to win by substantial scores, 824-813 and 817-757.

Fehl posted his evening's high series with games of 180, 180 and 188. The restaurant gang's Dick Keefer was a close second for series honors with 530.

Apple Tree's Pete Collodi rung up high individual game, 204.

Most improved Eagles bowler on the lanes in Tuesday's action was Frank Lister, a 150-average man, who rolled successive games of 164, 167 and 165.

Typical of the close battle which was waged between Eagles and Apple Tree all season was the total pinnage for the two clubs Tuesday. Both had identical totals of 2420.

The Eagles club will vie with the second half winner for the overall league championship.

Members of the Eagles team annexing the first half crown were Fehl, Lister, John Piorkowsky, Jack Wilson, William Grubb, Stan Nygowski and William Watson.

John Tarango Is Bicycle Winner

John Tarango, 13, of 183 Woodrow, was announced as the winner of a new English racing bicycle in a contest concluded Tuesday at Joseph Lewkowitz' Daly City Super Service, 3356 San Jose avenue, a Richfield station.

Tuesday marked the end of competition that has been held during past weeks, according to Lewkowitz.

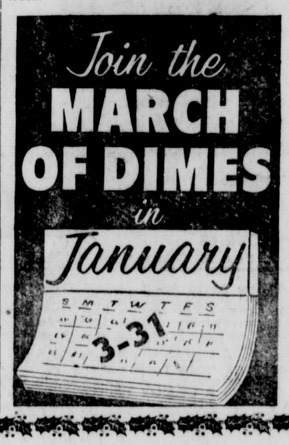
Van Alstyne Pots 23 In Rec Basketball

Byron Van Alstyne, Jefferson High school coach, tanked 23 points last week to lead unbeaten L. C. Smith to a 47-36 Class A recreation basketball victory over Minucciani Realty at the Baldwin gym in San Mateo.

Van Alstyne potted 10 field goals and three free throws to top the evening's scoring.

The Geiger and scintillation counters are the most widely used instruments in prospecting for uranium bearing ores.

The United States exported about 37 per cent of its cotton crop in 1952.



January Fight Card Again Features Molina In Main Go

Luis Molina, 132-pound battler who has proved a crowd-pleaser as well as a winner in his last two appearances as main-eventer on the OLPH Men's club amateur fight card, has been named for the January 13 feature attraction, the Men's club announced this week.

Molina will face an adequate foe in the person of Al Conley, who at 144 pounds will have a substantial weight advantage over the Santa Clara Youth Center slugger. Conley showed a pair of educated fists in last month's program at the Daly City community center as he knocked out Tony Moss in one minute and four seconds of the third round, after scoring sharply throughout the duration of the fight.

Molina, in his last two main event outings at the Center has licked, in order, North American lightweight champ L. C. Cage and Bill Orais, highly-ranked San Francisco lightweight, and is undefeated in 16 tests.

The Men's club has signed several servicemen who are European and territorial title-holders for the January fistic presentation. Among them will be Terry Smith, Colorado 150-pound champ, who will tangle with San Francisco's Hank Casey, a repeat performer for the OLPH events.

Smith has had more than 40 amateur fights and should prove plenty rough for the free-swinging Casey.

JEFF VARSITY DROPS 2 MORE; 30S WIN ONE

A strong Washington High school of San Francisco had too much stuff for Jefferson's basketball clubs Wednesday night, topping the varsity, 51-41, and turning back the local 30s, 34-28.

Al Lagomarsino led the Indian varsity with 19 points, while Larry Kennedy and Rich Gonzales potted eight apiece for the losing 30s.

In last Thursday night's action the Daly City 30s managed a 43-33 win over Lincoln behind Gonzales' 16-point effort, while the varsity was taking a 44-33 beating.

The local varsity now has two wins against seven losses in their practice outings while the 30s have a 2-5 record.

The two Indian clubs will be idle next week until Friday, when they open league play against Half Moon Bay in a home game.

DC REC OUTLOOK FOR '55 APPEARS BRIGHT

Basketball will play a prominent role in the recreation picture when the New Year opens. Seventh and eighth graders will resume play in a Junior league after a two week lay-off. The Adult league, just rolling into high gear, will be completed in a month to make way for the Teen Age circuit. In all the basketball picture for Daly City is bright. The community center facilities are to be given a great deal of credit for this, according to the Recreation department.

Recreation in general had a good year in 1954 and is looking forward to a brighter one in 1955, Director James Mason said. The year 1954 opened with a good deal of interest in basketball and is closing with even greater interest and participation.

Baseball, under the guidance of Coach Lou Martin, made tremendous strides in 1954. The outlook for 1955 is very encouraging, Mason added. "Just look at the number of youngsters on the playgrounds warming up for the coming season," he said.

The 1954 arts & crafts program saw a new addition in the hobbies club. This attracted many newcomers to summer recreation. Their handiwork was in prominent display in the arts, crafts & hobby show last August. Plans for 1955 are already being considered. It looks as though summer recreation in the coming year will be bigger and better than ever before, Mason estimated.

Attendance figures for 1954 show that interest in all forms of recreation has soared to a new high.

In addition to the many children who have spent their playing hours under the recereation department's supervision, many adult groups used the department's facilities at the community center for diverse purposes. Folk dancers, discussion groups, charity and social dances, boxing shows, fashion shows, art shows, and even the U.S. Post Office used some section of the recreation department's facilities in 1954. Requests for use of the center in 1955 will be even greater.

"Without the help of many of the fine citizens of Daly City, especially the Parent-Teacher association and Mothers' clubs, the recreation department would have had a great deal of difficulty in presenting its program," Mason said.

"To these groups and to the recreation commission, OLPH Men's club, the Daly City Women's Civic club, the Daly City Garden club, the Lions club, the Daly City Fire department, The Jefferson Union High School district, the Jefferson Elementary School district, the Daly City Police department, the Daly City street department, THE RECORD and to all those who so unselfishly donated time, services and equipment to the recreation department, many thanks and best wishes for 1955," the director concluded.

Daughter, Father Testify In B'moor Statutory Rape

William Oliver Goucher, 22, of 847 Thornhill drive, Broadmoor, charged with the statutory rape of a young Broadmoor school girl, appeared for preliminary hearing Tuesday in Judge Thomas L. Bocci's municipal court.

District Attorney's office presented two witnesses for the prosecution in the case—the 13-year-old school girl allegedly molested, and her father.

Preliminary hearing was continued to next Tuesday, beginning at 9:30 a.m. in municipal court, and is expected to be concluded on that day. If sufficient evidence is submitted in hearing to show that Goucher might have committed the acts charged, he will be bound over to superior court for trial.

Father of the girl, in a formal complaint filed earlier, charges that Goucher took his daughter to isolated spots in the area and had sexual relations with her on two different occasions early this month.

AFTER TWO WEEK DELAY, OLYMPIA GETS GAS BID

Contract for supplying the city of Daly City with approximately 3100 gallons of gas per month during 1955 was awarded the low bidder, Olympia Oil Co., Monday night by the city council.

Operator of the firm is Fred Bertetta, 10 Wilshire court. Bertetta, in a letter to the council, said he would guarantee an octane rating of .93 on the gas, after Councilman Edward Dennis had questioned awarding contract to a lesser known firm. Awarding of contract had been delayed two weeks for council study.

Bertetta's bid, .2154 per gallon, was only 26/100 of a cent lower than the next supplier, Rio Grande Oil Co., with a figure of .2180. Rio Grande has held the Daly City gas contract during the past year.

Mayor Joseph Verducci said it was the council's "duty" to award the contract to the low bidder as long as the gas met specifications.

After reading Bertetta's letter into the official minutes, councilmen voted unanimously to award Olympia Oil the contract.

Permanent reinstatements of licenses went to the following: Leo Milton Downey, 912 Heather road, Broadmoor; Vera W. Nedley, 278 Wilshire drive, Charles Boyd Whalen, 26 First avenue, and Jose Yahez, 198 Acton, all of Daly City.

COUNCIL VACATES PORTION SOUTHGATE

Order vacating portion of Southgate avenue in Westlake was passed by the city council Monday night.

The area vacated, near Elmwood drive, will be used by the Westlake Community Baptist church, which plans to erect a church in that vicinity.

St. Vincent Society Still Receives Donations

Donations to the St. Vincent de Paul Society's Christmas fund are still coming in, according to Peter Markovich, who headed the appeal in behalf of the fund.

The society and Markovich acknowledged with gratitude additional contributions from the following:

William Lagomarsino, Jefferson Union High School Employees Association, Henry Doelger, Pat Mahoney, A. Conci, Elbert Keithley, William Kennedy, Lake Merced Golf and Country club, Vincent Nevelo, Town and Country Food Center and Vincent Moran.

Distribution of toys, turkey baskets, food, clothing, candy and cash was made to over 70 families including 206 children and 16 single persons. Unexpended funds will be used to further the work of the society among the needy in Daly City during the coming year.

Award Final Payment For Booster Pump

Payment of $564.20 was awarded to Cisterino Pump Service Monday night by the city council.

The amount marked the last payment to the firm for installing a booster pump in Westlake.

LOCAL POLICE STOP 1195 IN CAR CHECK

Daly City police stopped and inspected 1195 vehicles in a safety check held Thursday night for southbound traffic on Mission street in front of Jefferson High school.

Only one drunk, a passenger, was arrested.

A total of 102 mechanical defect notices were issued. Most of these were for improper lights.

The check, held from 8 p.m. to 12 midnight, was conducted by Officers Les Bastedo and Gerald Schaeffer and five reserves.

The roadblock was held in conjunction with those being held throughout the entire Bay Area by the Bay Area Traffic Executives Council during the holiday season. More checks are expected prior to and during New Year's day.

SSF MAN HELD DRUNK DRIVER IN BROADMOOR

Robert M. Moore, 29, of 109 Buckston drive, South San Francisco, was arrested by Broadmoor police officer Gale Galusha Monday night on a charge of drunk driving after Galusha reported seeing the driver weaving down Junipero Serra boulevard.

Moore, travelling south on the boulevard, was picked up near the Pierce street intersection at 8:10 p.m. He said he had been drinking at a nearby tavern, according to Galusha.

The driver was released on $250 gail and scheduled to appear in municipal court Thursday, January 6.

My Mad World

By Leonore Brewer

Traditionally this, the last column of the old year, should be devoted to New Year's resolutions, and it would have been if we hadn't taken a quick glance at January's schedule. What we saw convinced us that what we need is not a New Year's resolution but a New Year's prayer: that we be granted the strength to get around to everything we want to see and hear.

The past few months have been terrific as far as ballet is concerned, and the end is happily not yet in sight. Ballet Theatre and Ballet Russe are just around the corner, and the Geary has booked Artkino's film, "Stars of the Russian Ballet," scheduled to open January 7. As it is seldom that the Russian dancers appear outside their own sphere, this full-length color film presents an unparalleled opportunity to see what they are doing.

Their program includes "Swan Lake," "The Fountain of Bakhchisarai" and "The Flames of Paris," all of which are evening-long ballets when given at the Bolshoi theater in Moscow, but each has been condensed so that all three occupy only eighty minutes.

A New Version

"Swan Lake" is so familiar that nothing much need be said except that this is a new version and is not merely the second act which is usually presented on our stage in lieu of the complete production.

In this version the character of Odile appears, and since her variations are some of the most dazzling in the entire ballerina repertoire, it is highly unlikely that they have been cut. It has become customary for the prima ballerina dance the dual role of Odette-Odile, but the program states that Ulanova dances Odette, while Dudinskaya, apparently an equally celebrated artist, dances Odile.

It is amusing to note that the story line is changed and it is the evil magician who dies in the end rather than Odette. Though they are fond of criticizing the Hollywood dream factory, apparently the Russians are not immune to the lure of the happy ending.

Scheherazade Flavor

Neither of the other two ballets are familiar to us. Both are Soviet productions of the early Thirties, set to music by Asafiev. "The Fountain" is based on the legend told by Pushkin in his poem of the same name, and the stills from it would indicate that it has a certain "Scheherazade"-like flavor. Ulanova also stars in this, dancing the role of Maria, a Polish princess captured by the Tartar Khan.

As the title would indicate "The Flames of Paris" is set against the background of the French Revolution, with the leading male role danced by Chaboukiani, who is considered one of the most brilliant dancers in Russia today.

This film is clearly intended to be a showcase for ballet in Russia today, so everybody should have his best foot forward.

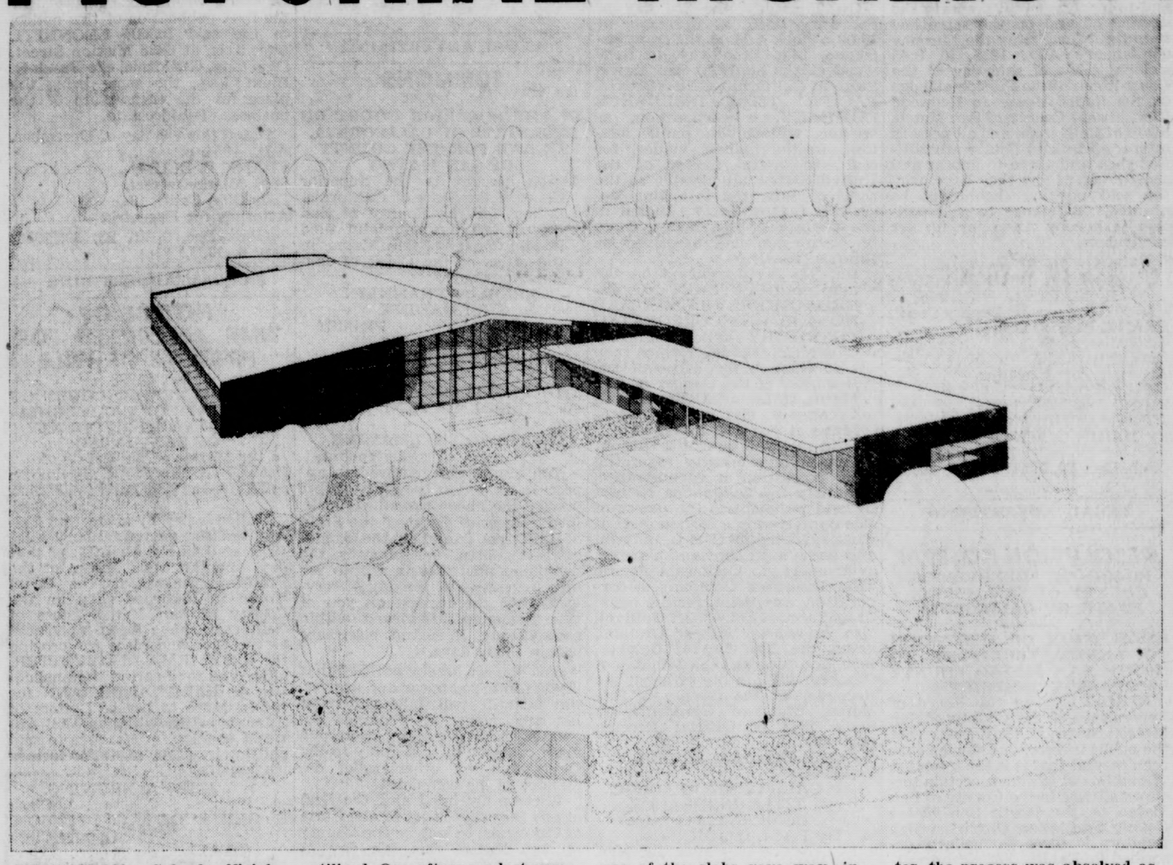
Sea-Vue Announces 'Eve Sneak Preview

There will be no need to travel far for a real New Year's Eve treat this weekend, according to an announcement from the Sea-Vue Theatre management.

Arrangements have been made to show a "Sneak Preview" of a feature picture that has never been shown in the Northern California area.

In setting up a schedule for New Year's Eve, manager Hal Honore has arranged for "Four Guns To The Border" to be shown once only, at 7 p.m. Immediately following the regular cartoon he will show "The Barefoot Contessa."

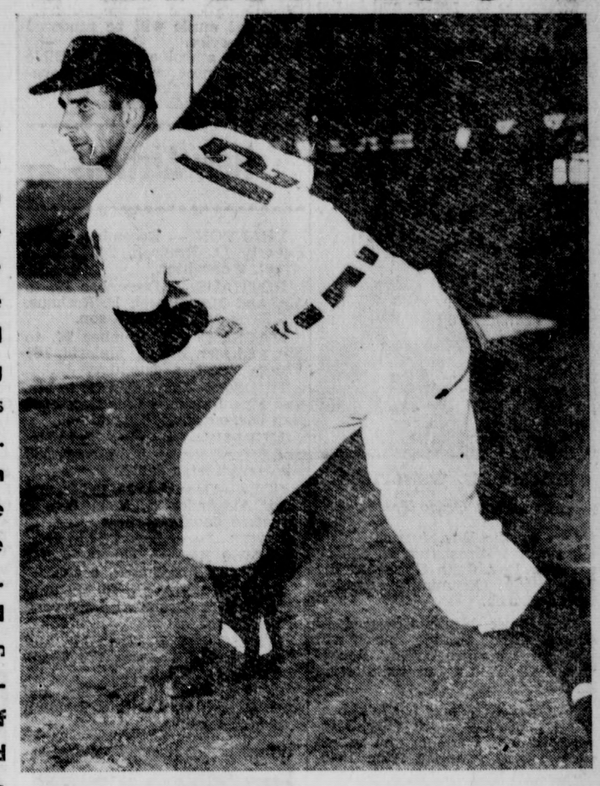
PICTORIAL HIGHLIGHTS OF THE YEAR 1954



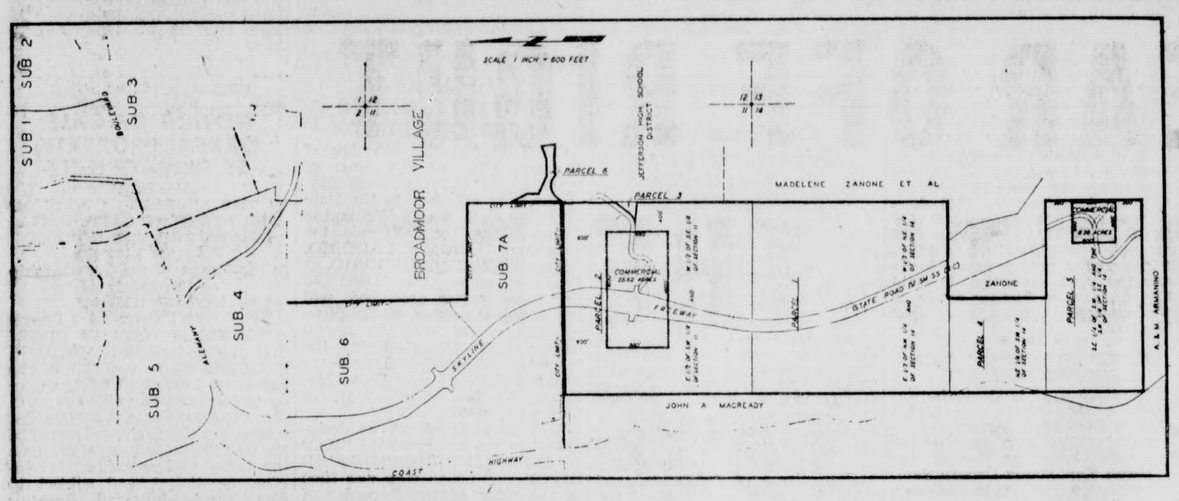
EDUCATION — School officials and citizens' interest was focused on the Olympia school project in Westlake, where the building innovation known as "lift-slab" process was to be utilized. One afternoon last summer, as the first of the mammoth concrete slabs was being lifted at Olympia, a similar project was in progress at Serra High school in San Mateo when one of the slabs gave way, injuring many and spreading doubt as to the effectiveness of the unique new building method. After a state report on the matter, the process was absolved as not at fault, building continued at Olympia and the modern new Daly City school is scheduled to be open for classes next Monday.

The News Mirrored

The year 1954 saw a myriad of news happenings mirrored editorially and pictorially through the columns of THE RECORD. Pictures shown here skim off the "cream" of the year's news events. The year was capped politically by the news that three incumbent councilmen had been unseated by three relative unknowns. School activities provided many inches of comment, with bond issues totalling more than $3,000,000 being passed by local voters and sundry school building projects launched. Tragedy and near-tragedy played a heavy role in the year's news. George Boerstler and Eugene Harmon were partners in death when they were trapped in a garage after a gasoline explosion. Antonio Martinico, former Daly City resident, faced accusation for a murder that occurred more than 30 years ago in New York, but was saved by Governor Goodwin J. Knight, who denied extradition of the Italian immigrant. Don Mossi, left-handed pitching wizard, put Daly City on the Big League map with his incredible performances with the American league champion Cleveland Indians. These, and many other incidents, are entwined in the news panorama that was 1954.



SPORTS—Don Mossi learned his baseball on the lots and playgrounds of Daly City. He knew organized baseball was for him, but he went up the hard way, playing the farm club route but always moving up a notch. Finally he landed the big time. Last spring the Cleveland Indians called the left-hander out of their hinterlands and right into the thick of a year that found the Tribe winning the AL crown. Mossi, in his first year in the Big Leagues, established the lowest earned run average in the league, 1.94, won six games, losing only one, and culminated the banner year by pitching in the World Series.



GEOGRAPHY — Henry Doelger moved with seven league boots in completing more than 3000 homes in his original Westlake development bordering on Alemany. In early autumn he announced plans to develop 440 acres of property shown here, east and west of Skyline boulevard, for another 3000 home subdivision. Councilmen recently approved the annexation, and the year 1955 will see Daly City's population increasing with rapid strides to rank probably as the third largest niunicipality in San Mateo county.

HISTORY — One drizzly afternoon in 1919 on a side street in the New York bowery a man gunned a known mobster to death. In October, thirty-five years later New York police said they wanted Antonio Martinico, 64-year-old SF elevator operator and former Daly City resident, as a suspect in the killing. Martinico had owned a tavern adjacent to the locale of the killing. Martinico's partner had originally been convicted of the murder and served 10 years in prison for the crime. Martinico, his wife and daughter suffered through the long days while they were waiting to find out if California would allow Martinico to be taken back to New York by that state's police. Gov. Goodwin Knight revived the happy domesticity that the Martinicos had known for so many long years when he refused to extradite the man.

YOUTH—David Allen Steward, 13, of 81 Crestwood drive, phoned THE RECORD reporter Nancy Lamb one day last August and asked if he could insert a paid ad announcing his own private parade. The idea caught hold. The newspaper publicized David's quest and the youngster took over from there, organizing bands, army drill teams, police and fire departments, city councilmen and a miscellaneous assortment of other personalities and contrivances that go to make up a successful parade. The spectacle exceeded all hopes, turning out to be Daly City's biggest parade and gaining recognition in media ranging from slick magazines to the wire services.

TRADEGY — In May, 1954, George Boerstler and his friend, Eugene Harmon, were cleaning Boerstler's garage at 312 Woodrow street with gasoline. Suddenly a deafening explosion rocked the neighborhood. A pilot light had ignited the gas fumes. The two men attempted to break out of the closed garage. Neighbors managed to knock the door down but it was too late by the time the victims escaped the inferno. They both died shortly after. Mrs. Boerstler, shown here with her four young boys, was left destitute but a spontaneous wave of charity by Daly City residents tided the bereaved family over. Later the Moose organization announced they would house the family at their home in the middle west.

Three Million Join Mothers' March on Polio

Three million women in over 50,000 American communities will provide a stirring climax to the month-long March of Dimes this week by staging a Mothers' March on Polio.

The Mothers' March is the biggest single source of funds for the March of Dimes. In many communities, it has become the event of the year with almost everyone participating.

The Post Office motto about "snow, nor rain, nor sleet," etc. could well apply to these women. The annals of the Mothers' March are filled with examples of how they have used dog sleds, skis, snowshoes, hip boots and sou'westers to make their "appointed rounds."

They have gone out in blizzards, sleet storms, hurricanes and cloudbursts, to visit every home where a porchlight signaled a waiting contribution for the March of Dimes.

The desire to give is strong, as the following incident shows: In a Wyoming city, Mothers' March headquarters received a call late one night from a widow with seven small children. Somehow, she said, the family had been missed.

When the marching mother got there she found the seven children dressed in their best, waiting to donate their pennies to help "protect children against polio."

The 1955 March of Dimes continues to January 31.

Read Philippians 2:5-13.

First a willing mind. (I Corinthians 8:12.)

Our praying is of little value if we have closed minds. When our ideas are set, our conclusions reached, and our opinions considered final, the will of God becomes meaningless for our lives. The Christian's purpose in praying is to bend his own will to the will of God.

One day in a young adult Sunday school class the teacher mentioned how our gifts of money to the church are an expression of our belief in the church and our concern for its work. Quickly one of the young men spoke up and said that what he gave had nothing to do with his belief and nothing to do with his interest in the church. It may well have been the truth. But any efforts on the part of the teacher to bring him to accept a larger meaning of stewardship failed. Why? Because the young man was sure he knew the answer, his opinion was final, his mind was closed.

Vital, meaningful praying is the result of open, receptive minds. God reaches our lives when entrance to our hearts is freely given.

PRAYER

Our Father, we thank Thee that we can possess childlike faith—faith to recognize our blessing as gifts of Thine, faith to accept Thy will for our lives, faith to call upon Thee, for strength and help. Through Christ, our Lord, who teaches us to pray, "Our Father who art in heaven . . . Amen."

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY

Through prayer we yield our will to God's.

Pedro Valley Youth Cited On Three Traffic Counts Here

An 18-year-old Pedro Valley youth was cited by police on three separate traffic counts after a wild ride up Alemany boulevard Friday night.

The driver, Ed Gutierrez, PO Box 94, Pedro Valley, was released on $50 cash bail on charges of wreckless driving, speeding and crossing from one lane to another.

Daly City Police Officer William Hein said Gutierrez, travelling west on Alemany, turned right at a high rate of speed on to Lake Merced boulevard after observing that the traffic light at the Lynnewood intersection was red.

Hein said the young driver immediately swerved back on Alemany, proceeding west, then made the same right-turn maneuver as he reached the red light at the Skyline intersection. After turning on to Skyline, the motorist then veered back to Alemany and continued west, the officer reported.

Shortly before apprehending Gutierrez, Officer Hein said he observed a half-empty beer can being thrown from the car.

Hein said he also saw a beer can on the floorboard of the auto.

JUVENILES DAMAGE CONCESSION RIDES

With an un-Christmas-like spirit, juvenile marauders did an estimated $40 damage to amusement devices located behind the Westlake shopping center over the weekend, police report.

The damage was reported by C. F. Albright, concession owner, of Oakland.

He said light bulbs and dashboard glass in two trucks were smashed, four light bulbs were broken out of kiddie cars and three of the cars overturned and light on the train engine was smashed and a spark pug broken.

Police said the vandalism occurred between Friday evening and Sunday afternoon.

The incident was one of four malicious mischief cases handled by Daly City police over the Christmas weekend. Three cars parked in Daly City had their windshields smashed.

"ONE ON THE HOUSE" IS TAKEN LITERALLY

Christmas weekend there was probably many tavern patrons who had "one on the house" but one man went to extremes this week, according to police report.

Daly City officers responded to the Westlake Lounge, 307 South Mayfair, at 5 a.m. Sunday morning after it was reported a man was seen on the roof of the tavern.

Bringing a fire department ladder with them, police arrived on the scene but the roof climber had vanished by the time they got there.

YOUR NEIGHBORS AND MINE

By Betty Brush

Hello Neighbors:

The presents are all opened, the trees are all in a state of sagging, and the mothers are all looking forward to that wonderful word—SCHOOL—Monday. All in all, the holidays were as wonderful as usual, but the peace and quiet that is due us soon will be more wonderful to enjoy.

Entertaining the family from Kansas for the holidays were MR. and MRS. ED EMERSON. Mrs. Emerson's brother, Mr. Gene Stewart and his wife, Beulah, were welcomed by members of Mrs. Emerson's family at a Christmas dinner. A wonderful time was had by all and as usual with the Emerson's when they entertain, there was just everything that anyone could want. By now the Gene Stewarts are on their way home with fond memories of a grand holiday.

Heard from my friend MRS. MARGARET STEELE of Winchester street last week. Seems she hasn't been feeling her best. All her friends and neighbors have a New Year's wish for her, "Get well soon, Margaret, you are loved and missed by so very many."

The most excited person in town over the holidays was Mrs. ALLEEN BRUSH of Los Banos avenue. She had a long distance call from her husband, A 2/c ALBERT JAMES BRUSH, who is somewhere in Japan. Of course, kids being kids, son DAVID BRUSH, who gabs all day long, picked that time to stay silent. Wouldn't you know it?

Items of Interest

Being host and hostess to a large group of thier family for Christmas dinner were MR. and MRS. WM. BRUSH of Niantic avenue. Besides MR. and MRS. ART ALVISO, there were MR. ALBERT BRUSH SR., MRS. ALLEN BRUSH and family, MR. and MRS. JOHN ROWAN and family, MR. and MRS. THOMAS CUNNINGHAM, and, of course, many friends and neighbors dropped in to wish them many happy returns of the day.

Spending the day after Christmas with her sister and former resident of our town, MR. and MRS. "BUNK" CAMERON of Redwood City, was that ever-popular neighbor, MRS. DOROTHY STEWART of Hillcrest drive. Dorothy has so many friends and they all want her to visit them during the holidays so she'll be a very busy lady for some time to come.

One of the nicest neighbors in town just before the big day was MRS. LYNN BOSKY of the Daly City Beauty Shop. Some of her patrons had one reason or another to cancel their appointments, so she took many of us who were hoping for just such an event to happen. The best part was she took the trouble to let us know we could "look beautiful for Christmas." Thanks, Lynn, from lots of us.

One of the busiest households on Christmas Day was that of the JOSEPH CASTELLANOS of Santa Cruz avenue. Among the guests who enjoyed dinner in addition to the Castellanos were MR. and MRS. GEORGE PARIS and family, MR. ANNIO PARIS, Mrs. Castellanos' brother, plus numerous friends and relatives who dropped by to wish them many happy returns of the day.

Among those who are so fortunate to be born around Christmas time that people almost forget their birthdays, is ROBERT BRUSH of Winchester street. He just happened to be born on December 27th, and this year was the eleventh time he has wished he was like the other kids and had a birthday at some other time of the year. Anyway all the folks wish you a HAPPY BIRTHDAY — ROBERT WALTER BRUSH.

Servicemen

First of all to all of the folks, and that includes the FIRE DEPARTMENT, EAGLES, U.A.O.D., AMERICAN LEGION, LIONS CLUB, plus numerous others who brought so very much happiness to so many over the Christmas holidays, a grateful thanks from all the folks. There are so many of the boys in hospitals whose day was brightened because of their efforts of good cheer. Isn't it wonderful folks that we have such grand neighbors—both yours and mine.

Had the most welcome Christmas card of all this year. It told me that A 2/c ANDY ANDERSON is now home for Christmas after almost two years. Andy spent last year in Greenland A.F.B. and this year will be a most welcome change. Welcome home, Andy, and Happy New Year to you from all the folks.

A 2/c "MAC" MacDONNELL sent word from Great Falls, Montana, where he is stationed, to wish all of us Happy Holidays. Mac is spending his first Christmas home and also his first as a married man, so he is most happy. Lots of good luck and best wishes for you in the New Year too, Mac, from all of us.

News and Views

Having a birthday last week in time to beat Santa Claus was little DENNIS MALDONADO. He is now one year old and just big enough to really enjoy all the fun. Happy birthday, Dennis, from all the folks.

An open house was held on Christmas Eve at the home of MR. and MRS. FRANK BOSKEY of Woodrow street. Enjoying all the fun were, in addition to the Boskeys, MISS SHARON CASAD, MR. and MRS. FRANK BOSKEY SR., JULIA BOSKEY, MR. and MRS. GUS MANZANI, and their daughter LUCILLE, MR. and MRS. HIGGINS of Bethel Island and, of course, numerous friends who just dropped by to join in all the fun.

Well, folks, this is the last column of 1954. It has been so very wonderful meeting new folks, hear from all the old folks, and above all writing for you. Remember this is your column, I just try to write it up for you. The phone number is still PL. 5-6482, and a Happy New Year is wished all of you from me. May the New Year bring not only health and happiness, but God's blessing to all of my folks that make up Your Neighbors and Mine. Until next time then—'Bye Now.

FULL TUMMIES and happy faces were reported the aftermath of the Village Play school's recent Christmas party and dancing day. Dick Ford, dancing teacher for the school, played Santa Claus and had each of the children do an original dance to portray what they would like for Christmas. Following the dancing the children received gaily wrapped packages. Refreshments, consisting of decorated gingerbread men, ice cream cones filled with candy and cookies and fruit juice, culminated the afternoon activities. Shown in photo (table at left) are: Mary Lee Kirchman, Susan Sawhill, Robin Lepore, Richard Orloff, Coleen Coughlin; (center table) Greg Gillam, Jeff McKay, Janet Cuniberti, Jeff Friedland, Marianne Murtagh, Charles Frieberg, Pamela Sturla, Jan Macklin, Karen Martin, LeRoy Larsen and Randi Lee Morton; (table at right) Paul Talbot, Barbara Land, Kathleen Roberts, Kent Guyman, Jeff Land, Judy Land, Doug Simms, Margo Reichard, Kathy Scalice, Kennie Wickham and Richard Bernard.

OK SIX MONTHS EXTENSION ON PARK DRAIN

M & K Corp., contractors on the installation of a drainage system at Westlake park site off Lake Merced and Alemany boulevards, was granted a six-months extension to complete the job in action by the city council Monday night.

The firm was awarded contract to install a concrete storm drain at the 10- acre recreation site on October 11. They were low bidders with a price of $21,520.

After winning contract, the firm was also retained to install a section of drain in the Henry Doelger property which adjoins the park site. The Doelger drain will tie in with the Daly City installation. City Engineer Edwin Smith pointed out that if the city drain was put into use now it would discharge water on the Doelger project.

Smith explained that Daly City's portion of the project is actually completed, but water is being diverted now pending instalation of the Doelger section.

A Message from Lee Bagrash
Your Pharmacist

OVER 140,000 DIFFERENT DRUG STORE PRODUCTS are listed in the 1955 Drug Topics Price Book, and 14,126 of them are new items. No one drug store could possibly carry all of them in stock. But we do surprise, even ourselves, by usually having everything you may ask for, and we can and will get for you, anything available as quickly as possible, because we know where they are obtainable.

SO MANY NEW PRESCRIPTION DRUGS are being perfected each month that we must constantly keep informed by reading our Pharmaceutical and Medical Journals. Also Drug firms send us information about a new product release, even before they notify the Physicians, so that when Your Physician prescribes a new discovery, we usually have it in stock.

OPERATING A PRESCRIPTION PHARMACY is much more complicated than it used to be, when a few hundred chemicals and drugs were all that was necessary to stock a prescription department. Now we carry thousands of bottles containing medicines that were unknown less than 10 years ago.

THAT IS WHY we will appreciate it, if you will inform any Physician you may consult, even in the most distant of cities, that we can compound his prescriptions.
